Northern Frontiers Family Violence Awareness Programme 2021 Brochure

The Family Violence Awareness Programme is a primary intervention designed to engage individuals who use abusive behaviours in their intimate and family relationships.

This programme is both educational and motivational with a strong focus on the nature and impact of family violence on individuals, relationships, children and other vulnerable people.

The programme is offered in a structured individual counselling format to maximise opportunity for self-reflection and core awareness building.

Service delivery is flexible to accommodate the needs of people living or working in remote locations. Participants may attend voluntarily or via a process of being court mandated before or at the time of sentencing.

TARGET GROUP:

The Family Violence Awareness Programme is an 8-week programme designed to meet the needs of individuals in the pre-contemplative or contemplative stage of behaviour change in preparation for ongoing long-term behaviour modification.

In accordance with best practice the Family Violence Awareness Programme offers a consistent and thorough focus on the safety of victims and their dependents who are our primary clients – making it particularly relevant to child safety services.
